DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 12/08/2005 has been entered.
2. Claims 1-11, 18-20, 41-45 are currently pending in this application. Claims 12-17 and 21-40 have been cancelled. Claim 45 has been newly added. Claims 1, 8-9, 19, 41, and 43 have been amended.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. In view of the Office action of 7/13/2005, the rejection of claims 1-11, 21, 23, 41, and 43 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by MacGregor et al. (US Pat. 4,846,504), has been withdrawn due to the amendments made thereto and to further consideration.
4. In view of the Office action of 7/13/2005, the rejection of claims 1-3, 8-11, 18-24, 41-44, under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sorensen et al. (US Pat. 4,771,891), has been withdrawn due to the amendments made thereto and to further consideration.
5. In view of the Office action of 7/13/2005, the rejection of claims 1-5, 9-10, 12-18, 21-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cameron et al. (US Pat. 6,025,071), has been withdrawn due to the amendments made thereto and to further consideration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. In view of the Office action of 7/13/2005, the rejection of claims 12-17, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sorensen and further in view of Cameron, has been withdrawn due to the amendments made thereto and to further consideration.

7. In view of the Office action of 7/13/2005, the rejection of claims 4-7, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sorensen and further in view of MacGregor, has been withdrawn due to the amendments made thereto and to further consideration.

NEW REJECTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

9. Claims 1-11, 18-20, and 41-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Van Driesten et al. (WO 00/46316) cited in the IDS filed on 5/28/2004, or Van Driesten et al. (EP 1026215A1).

Van Driesten (WO '316) discloses an adhesive article, comprising a face construct 11, a release layer 13, a pressure-sensitive adhesive (permanent) layer 14, a polyester layer 15, a pressure-sensitive adhesive layer 12, a non pressure sensitive adhesive layer 2, a release layer 32, a liner layer 37, a pressure sensitive adhesive layer 36, a release layer 33, and a liner layer 31 (see claims 1-23; Fig. 14A).

Art Unit: 1711

Layers 11, 31, and 37 are made of paper and plastic film of a polyolefin, such as polyethylene and polypropylene, or a polyester, such as polyethylene terephthalate (see claims 19-21; page 15, 2nd paragraph). The PSA adhesive and non-PSA adhesive can be hotmelt adhesive and rubber-based or acrylic-based (see page 9, ln. 21-33; page 11, ln. 24-37; page 19, ln. 23-36).

Van Driesten further discloses the laminate being laminated on a roll of face material 8 to yield a roll of single or double ply label laminate 10 or 40 (see paragraph bridging pages 16-17).

Although the reference does not specifically teach the substrate to be moisture resistant, the adhesive to be removable and resealable in the presence of moisture from food packaging environments, or its Moist Loop Test result, since the reference teaches the same components in the laminate, the laminate would inherently have all the same properties as presently claimed.

The same arguments are presented with respect to Van Driesten (EP '215).

10. Claims 1-8 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Navarini et al. (US Pat. 6,056,141). This reference is equivalent to EP-0661154A cited in the IDS filed on 5/28/2004.

Navarini discloses a laminate, comprising a top layer 2, a repositionable adhesive 4, an inner layer 3, and a protective layer 5 (see col. 2, ln. 35-51). Adhesive layer 4 is acrylic-based (see col. 4, ln. 17-20). Layer 2 can be a multilayer, comprising an outer support film 2' of paper or PET, OPA, OPP; polyurethane adhesive; a barrier film 2'' of EVOH or PVDC; another polyurethane adhesive; a support film 2''' ; a redepositable adhesive 4 of acrylic base. Layer 3 can also be multilayer, comprising a support film, an PU adhesive, a sealing film of polyolefin. (See Figs. 5B-5C; col. 5, ln. 29-49).

Art Unit: 1711

Although the reference does not specifically teach the substrate to be moisture resistant, the adhesive to be removable and resealable in the presence of moisture from food packaging environments, or its Moist Loop Test result, since the reference teaches the same components in the laminate, the laminate would inherently have all the same properties as presently claimed.

11. Claims 1-4, 18, 41-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bane (US Pat. 5,366,087), cited in the IDS filed on 9/29/2005.

Bane discloses a label to reseal a package, comprising a substrate 11 of paper or plastics. On one face of the substrate, there is a thermally sensitive coating 12 having a perforated line bisecting the substrate. And on the other face of the substrate are coatings 14 and 15 of adhesive on opposite sides of the perforated line. Coating 14 is a permanent pressure sensitive and hotmelt adhesive and coating 15 is a repositional adhesive (removable and resealable) (see Figs. 1-4; paragraph bridging col. 2-3; col. 3, ln. 57-68). A release liner 16 covers the coatings 14 and 15, or coating 12 so as to provide a roll of such labels (see col. 3, ln. 8-23).

Although the reference does not specifically teach the substrate to be moisture resistant, the adhesive to be removable and resealable in the presence of moisture from food packaging environments, or its Moist Loop Test result, since the reference teaches the same components in the laminate, the laminate would inherently have all the same properties as presently claimed.

Response to Arguments

12. Applicant's arguments with respect to the rejections of the claims in the Office action of 7/13/2005 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Art Unit: 1711

Remarks

13. Applicants are reminded that it is the structural elements, not properties or functions, that impart patentability when an article claim is being considered. To distinguish the presently claimed invention from the prior art, Applicants should include structural elements that give the article its' properties that are being claimed.
